IS YOUR CHILD HEADING OFF TO KINDERGARTEN?

Learn About: Transition from Preschool to School Age Services

For any parent with a child going off to kindergarten, it is a time of excitement and anxiety. For families of children with special needs it can be nerve wracking. Participants will learn the differences between the Committee on Preschool Special Education (CPSE) and the Committee on Special Education (CSE) and learn strategies to work effectively with the school district.

We are offering this training at two locations!
