

Public Forum on Disability Issues

July 26, 2010 / 6-8 PM

Kate Gleason Auditorium at the Central Library
115 South Avenue / Rochester, New York

Come honor the 20th Anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act, and set the agenda for future advocacy.

July 26th, is the 20th anniversary of the signing of the ADA by the first President Bush. It's appropriate to focus on what has gone well, and what work remains to be done to remove the barriers faced by people with disabilities! The Center for Disability Rights and Regional Center for Independent Living will be hosting a public forum on disability issues.

This is a great opportunity for all people with disabilities in our area to help form the advocacy agenda of CDR/RCIL, and your federal representatives as we move beyond the first 20 years of the ADA! What do you think needs to be improved? Come tell us! We hope to see a tremendous turn out of people with disabilities.

CART and American Sign Language interpreters will be provided. Facility is wheelchair accessible.
